

The student needs to respond to the following questions

ACADEMIC HISTORY

In which month and year you completed your last studies? -----

Who is going to sponsor your education? -----

What was the name of the school/college/university you studied at?

-----
-----

If you completed any tertiary studies, how it is related to the course you intend to enrol at?

-----
-----

If the new major you chose is different than your previous studies, how that is relevant to your future plans?

-----
-----

MARRIAGE HISTORY

Which date you marry? -----

Do you have family living in Australia? If so, what do they do and what type of visa do they hold in Australia?

-----
-----

Does your spouse intend to accompany you to Australia? -----

What is your spouse's current occupation? -----

Will your spouse resign from their current employment to accompany you to Australia? -----

What does your spouse intend to do in Australia? -----

Do you have any children? If so, will your children accompany you to Australia? -----

Are you aware that school aged children must attend school in Australia? -----

Is your spouse funding your Education? -----

WORK EXPERIENCE

Give detailed information of work experience gained during your years of studies or after that:

-----
-----

Start and End Date of employment: -----

- Student Name:
- University:
- Study Level:

1. Economic circumstances in home country or country of residence – this can include documents showing employment or business activities for 12 months prior to application lodgment, an employment offer after course completion, income tax return reports or bank statements.

2. Reason for not studying in home country or region if a similar course is available there,

If your program is offered in your country, why don't you want to study it there?

How is the education system in Australia different to that in your country and how will this benefit you?

3. Ties to home country or country of residence – this may include evidence of financial, family or social ties. The applicant needs to show they have significant incentives to return home once study is complete.

4. Military service commitments,

5. Political and civil unrest in home country.

6. Ties to Australia which would present as a strong incentive to remain in Australia,

7. Level of knowledge of proposed course of study and education provider.

What research have you done into Australian Universities that has led you to choose this university?

Why have you chosen this university over other Universities in Australia?

How will this program benefit your future?

How is this program related to your previous studies?

If this program is not related to your previous studies, why have you decided to change your career path?
What do you know about this program?

8. Previous study and qualification(s) planned living arrangements and financial stability.

9. Value of the course to the applicant's future – is the course(s) consistent with the applicant's current level of education,

What job do you expect to get once you complete this program?

Do you have an offer of a job when you return to your home country? If not, how do you intend to look for a job once you return home? How much salary you expect to earn?

10. Relevance to past or proposed future employment in home country or a third country,

11. Expected remuneration in home country or third country which could be gained using the qualification(s) from the course(s) of study.

12. Previous visa applications for Australia or other countries including visa refusals or cancellations.

13. Evidence or information about previous study,( Academic transcripts which show qualification(s) obtained Name of the education provider(s) and duration of study, certificates of attainment),

14. Gap in previous study – reasons why there is a gap in between studies including where enrolment was not maintained.

How long is the gap between your previous study and your intended study?

Provide information on any periods of time (gaps) between formal studies and work experience.

What have you been doing since you completed your most recent studies?

15. Current employment – current employer, company address, period of employment and details about the position held. Applicant's should include the name and contact details of a person who can verify the terms of employment.

Financial Declaration

Please read below and confirm the following statement:

The student must show evidence that he/she is capable of paying the entire tuition fee and living expenses for the whole duration of studying in Australia. One year tuition fee and living expenses must be shown as evidence in an approved bank account or other approved forms of financials if acceptable for the country that the student is coming from.

I agree       I disagree

You are fully aware of the tuition fees and living costs and you understand that if you are unable to pay their tuition fees their enrolment will be cancelled by the university.

I agree       I disagree

Student Name -----

Student Signature -----